The sassy, sensational follow-up to
Not Meeting Mr Right.

Taking a man to Melbourne would be like taking a sandwich to a smorgasbord.

'So it's final then, you're not taking James to Melbourne?' Liza asked.

'Are you kidding? Taking a man to Melbourne would be like taking a sandwich to a smorgasbord.'

Peta Tully has found her Mr Right ... the only trouble is, she's not sure she's ready to settle down. Not just yet, anyway - so when she's offered a twelve-month contract interstate which just might win her the job of her dreams, she puts her Sydney life on hold, packs her bags and jumps on a plane, leaving her doting boyfriend behind. Peta takes a voluntary vow of celibacy, but sticking to it proves harder than she imagines ...

This is Anita Heiss's second book about Peta, Alice, Liza and Dannie, four deadly, desirable and dynamic thirty-something chicks from Sydney's eastern beaches.

Anita will be appearing at Tasmania Living Writers' Week, Melbourne Writers' Festival and Brisbane Writers' Festival

Anita Heiss is a writer, poet, activist, social commentator and academic. She is the author of Yirra and her deadly dog, Demon, I'm not racist, but... and My Story: the diary of Mary Talence, Sydney 1937, which was shortlisted for the NSW Premier's Literary Awards Young People's History Prize. She is a member of the Wiradjuri nation of central New South Wales, but grew up in Matraville, Sydney. Anita describes herself as a concrete Koori with a Westfield dreaming - a city chick whose idea of Survivor is a night in a caravan.

Brilliant
Chick-lit!
